CAMP DIRECTOR

Matt Fletcher, Head Men's Basketball Coach

Fletcher is entering his fourth season as the Bethany Lutheran College Men's Basketball Coach. In three seasons, the Vikings have had a resurgence and established themselves as an offensive juggernaut. In 2018, the Vikings captured the regular-season UMAC championship and tournament championship, advancing to the NCAA Tournament for the first time ever. The Vikings then defeated St. John's University in the first round of the NCAA Tournament to advance to the Round of 32.

Fletcher spent the previous three seasons at the University of Upper Iowa (NCAA Division II) as the associate head coach (2015-16) and an assistant the first two seasons (2013-15). During the 2011-12 season, Fletcher was an assistant at Kentucky Wesleyan. He started his collegiate coaching career under Rich Glas at NCAA III Concordia (Minn.) during the 2008-09 season.

Fletcher, a native of North Branch, Minn., had a stellar four-year career at Southwest Minnesota State (NCAA II). The three-time All-NSIC performer holds the career records at SMSU for three-pointers made (305), free throw percentage (85.3%), and is second in three-point percentage at (44.8%). Fletcher is the seventh leading scorer in SMSU history with 1,375 career points.
